

BIRRA PORETTI

In spite of its Italian roots, Birra Poretti is brewed according to north European methods, which Poretti's founder learnt in the 19th century.

KOFF

The international prize-winning beer Koff from Finnish company Sinebrychoff is a fresh, cool and pleasant beer that is also aromatic and full-bodied.

DUCKSTEIN

The German beer Duckstein is matured in beech casks and brewed according to methods from the 15th century, which gives the beer a special characteristic flavour.

FALCON

Falcon was sold for the first time in 1896 and from the outset was an example of Swedish beer brewing at its best.

FELDSCHLÖSSCHEN

This Swiss beer has been the leading beer brand in Switzerland for more than 100 years and is the epitome of the German-Swiss brewing tradition and beer culture.

TUBORG LITE

Tuborg Lite came onto the market in February 2007. It was specially developed with a view to reducing the number of calories compared with ordinary pilsner beer.

JACOBSEN

The super-premium beer Jacobsen is brewed at Carlsberg's house brewery, the Jacobsen Brewhouse. The range consists of four beers, and limited editions are also brewed.

